
PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

My professional career has evolved from being a technical specialist to a leader in safety and dispute resolution. I provide efficient and compliant Mediation and Family Dispute Resolution (FDR) services for organisations and individuals. My processes give clients the opportunity to resolve disputes rapidly and effectively. For Family Law issues if FDR is not the appropriate process I can provide 60i Certificates in a timely manner allowing clients to proceed to court. I'm competent in both parenting and property FDR.

Mediation

- Excellent communication skills with a low key, friendly style that puts clients at ease
- Confidential and discrete
- I understand multicultural issues and dispute resolution strategies
- My approach empowers clients to negotiate and resolve their issues
- Demonstrated ability to remain neutral at all times
- I ensure that all relevant documentation is in place for workplace mediation

Family Dispute Resolution (FDR)

- Excellent negotiation and communication skills in relation to family disputes
- Able to maintain a safe and respectful process for everyone
- Able to interact with a diverse group of people
- I keep the process on track by ensuring that negotiations are future focused
- I encourage parents to focus on the "best interests of their children"
- Fully insured and compliant with my registration requirements and ethical obligations as a Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner.

SERVICES AVAILABLE

- Workplace, Education, Neighbour and Community dispute resolution services
- Family Dispute Resolution Mediation – this includes a confidential pre-mediation session with each party to the dispute and one or more joint sessions. A written copy of the Parenting Agreement, Parenting Plan or Financial Agreement is provided to assist with getting legal advice or assistance with requesting Consent Orders.
- 60i Certificates when FDR is not suitable
- Face to face, Video and Shuttle mediations
